

The colored dots represent a set of  $X_i$ 's with a small variance. The black dots represent a set of  $X_i$ 's with a large variance. The regression line can be estimated more accurately with the black dots than with the colored dots.

